

APRIL 14, 2023

Dear Valued Customer,

FirstCapital Bank of Texas has been proudly serving our customers and communities since we opened our doors in 1998. For over two decades, you have trusted us with your important financial business, and we thank you. It has always been our goal to provide you, our customers, and our communities with friendly, professional assistance and products and services to meet your financial needs. Over the years, our mission has remained steadfast - You Above All.

As part of our commitment to growth, product enhancements, and an expanded banking center network for our customers, we are excited to announce that we expect to merge FirstCapital Bank with Prosperity Bank effective May 1, 2023.

We will be working together in the coming weeks to manage a smooth transition for all FirstCapital Bank customers. As of now, nothing will change for you until our account conversion on Monday, May 15, 2023. At that time, you will gain access to more than 290 banking center locations throughout Texas and Oklahoma, as well as a variety of new products and services. Please reference important conversion information in this packet.

Update Your Contact Information

As the conversion date of Monday, May 15, 2023, approaches, we will communicate with you about updates to your accounts and when you can visit a Prosperity Bank location. To avoid missing any account change notices and other important information, please confirm that your contact information, including your mailing address, email address, and phone number are updated in your FirstCapital account records.

Email Communications from Prosperity Bank

To ensure you receive updates and communications, FirstCapital Bank customers with a current email address on record can expect to receive email communications from Prosperity Bank, contactus@prosperitybankusa.com. Please refer to the remaining contents of this letter for reminders about safeguarding your personal financial information when opening emails.

We look forward to bringing you more details on this exciting news. Please visit www.FCBTexas.com/Prosperity for the latest updates.

Sincerely,

Ken Burgess
