

PRESS RELEASE

PROSPERITY BANCSHARES, INC.® AND SOUTHWEST BANCSHARES, INC. IN SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HOUSTON AND SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, October 1, 2025. Prosperity Bancshares, Inc.® (NYSE: PB) ("Prosperity"), the parent company of Prosperity Bank®, and Southwest Bancshares, Inc. ("Southwest"), the parent holding company of Texas Partners Bank ("Texas Partners"), headquartered in San Antonio, Texas, today jointly announced the signing of a definitive merger agreement whereby Prosperity will acquire Southwest and Texas Partners.

Texas Partners operates eleven (11) banking offices in Central Texas including its main office in San Antonio, and banking offices in the San Antonio area, Austin and the Hill Country. As of June 30, 2025, Southwest, on a consolidated basis, reported total assets of $2.4 billion, total loans of $1.9 billion and total deposits of $2.1 billion.

Under the terms and subject to the conditions of the definitive agreement, Prosperity will issue 4,062,520 shares of Prosperity common stock for all outstanding shares of Southwest common stock and restricted stock awards, subject to certain potential adjustments. Southwest warrants and in-the-money Southwest stock options that are outstanding at the closing will be converted into cash payments based on the value of the merger consideration (less the applicable exercise price), as calculated pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement. Based on Prosperity's closing price of $65.97 on September 29, 2025, the total consideration was valued at approximately $268.9 million.

Brent Given, Texas Partners Interim Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, will join Prosperity Bank as San Antonio Area Chairman, and Tom Moreno, Texas Partners Chief Operating Officer, will have a senior management position in Prosperity Bank's operations. Additional members of Texas Partners management will maintain leadership roles in the combined organization.

In addition, upon completion of the merger, Gene Dawson, Jr., Interim Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Southwest, will join the Board of Directors of Prosperity Bank.

“It has been a pleasure getting to know Gene, Brent, Tom and the management team at Southwest. We look forward to them joining our organization,” said David Zalman, Senior Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Prosperity. “We have wanted to expand our presence in the fast-growing and desirable San Antonio and Hill Country areas and Southwest’s locations are an excellent fit. Combined with the American Bank acquisition, we will have ten (10) banking centers in the San Antonio area, expand into Kerrville and Bandera, Texas and enhance our presence in Austin, Fredericksburg and New Braunfels. The customers of Texas Partners will be able to use any of our locations across Texas and Oklahoma after operational integration.”

“For the past 18 years, Texas Partners Bank has proudly served locally-owned businesses, their owners and employees in our fast-growing communities,” said Brent Given, Interim Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Texas Partners Bank. “We are excited to join Prosperity Bank, a leading Texas-based financial institution, bringing together the strength and resources of a larger regional bank, while maintaining the local decision-making and personalized service our clients know and trust.”

The merger has been unanimously approved by the Boards of Directors of both companies and is expected to close during the first quarter of 2026. The transaction is subject to certain conditions, including approval by Southwest’s shareholders and customary regulatory approvals.

Southwest is being advised by Stephens Inc., as financial advisor, and Fenimore Kay Harrison LLP, as legal counsel. Wachtell, Lipton, Rosen & Katz is serving as legal counsel to Prosperity.

Cautionary Notes on Forward Looking Statements

This press release contains statements regarding the proposed transactions between (1) Prosperity Bancshares, Inc. (“Prosperity”) and Southwest Bancshares, Inc. (“Southwest”) and (2) Prosperity and American Bank Holding Corporation (“American”); future financial and operating results; benefits and synergies of the transactions; future opportunities for Prosperity; the issuances of common stock of Prosperity contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Merger by and between Prosperity and Southwest (the “Prosperity/Southwest Merger Agreement”) and the Agreement and Plan of Merger by and between Prosperity and American (the “Prosperity/American Merger Agreement” and, together with the Prosperity/Southwest Merger Agreement, the “Merger Agreements”); in connection with the proposed transaction between Prosperity and Southwest, the expected filing by Prosperity with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) of a registration statement on Form S-4 (the “Prosperity/Southwest Registration Statement”) and a prospectus of Prosperity and a proxy statement of Southwest to be included therein (the “Prosperity/Southwest Proxy Statement/Prospectus”); in connection with the proposed transaction between Prosperity and American, a registration statement on Form S-4 (the “Prosperity/American Registration Statement” and, together with the Prosperity/Southwest Registration Statement, the “Registration Statements”) and a preliminary prospectus of Prosperity and a proxy statement of American included therein (the “Prosperity/American Proxy Statement/Prospectus” and, together with the Southwest Proxy Statement/Prospectus, the “Proxy Statement/Prospectuses”), which registration statement was filed with the SEC on September 17, 2025 and amended on September 30, 2025; the expected timing of the closing of the proposed transactions; the ability of the parties to complete the proposed transactions considering the various closing conditions and any other statements about future expectations that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws, including the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, as amended, Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. From time to time, oral or written forward-looking statements may also be included in other information released to the public. Such forward-looking statements are typically, but not exclusively, identified by the use in the statements of words or phrases such as “aim,” “anticipate,” “believe,” “estimate,” “expect,” “goal,” “guidance,” “intend,” “is anticipated,” “is expected,” “is intended,” “objective,” “plan,” “projected,” “projection,” “will affect,” “will be,” “will continue,” “will decrease,” “will grow,” “will impact,” “will increase,” “will incur,” “will reduce,” “will remain,” “will result,” “would be,” variations of such words or phrases (including where the word “could,” “may,” or “would” is used rather than the word “will” in a phrase) and similar words and phrases indicating that the statement addresses some future result, occurrence, plan or objective. Forward-looking statements include all statements other than statements of historical fact, including forecasts or trends, and are based on current expectations, assumptions, estimates, and projections about Prosperity and its subsidiaries or related to the proposed transactions between (1) Prosperity and Southwest and (2) Prosperity and American and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results expressed in such statements.

These forward-looking statements may include information about Prosperity's possible or assumed future economic performance or future results of operations, including future revenues, income, expenses, provision for loan losses, provision for taxes, effective tax rate, earnings per share and cash flows and Prosperity's future capital expenditures and dividends, future financial condition and changes therein, including changes in Prosperity's loan portfolio and allowance for loan losses, future capital structure or changes therein, as well as the plans and objectives of management for Prosperity's future operations, future or proposed acquisitions, the future or expected effect of acquisitions on Prosperity's operations, results of operations, financial condition, and future economic performance, statements about the anticipated benefits of each of the proposed transactions, and statements about the assumptions underlying any such statement.

These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and are based on expectations and assumptions Prosperity currently believes to be valid. Because forward-looking statements relate to future results and occurrences, many of which are outside of Prosperity's control, they are subject to inherent uncertainties, risks and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict. Many possible events or factors could adversely affect the future financial results and performance of Prosperity, Southwest or American or the combined company and could cause those results or performance to differ materially from those expressed in or implied by the forward-looking statements. Such risks and uncertainties include, among others: (1) the risk that the cost savings and synergies from the transactions may not be fully realized or may take longer than anticipated to be realized, (2) disruption to Prosperity's, Southwest's and American's businesses as a result of the announcements and pendency of the transactions, (3) the risk that the integration of Southwest's and/or American's businesses and operations into Prosperity, will be materially delayed or will be more costly or difficult than expected, or that Prosperity is otherwise unable to successfully integrate Southwest's and/or American's business into its own, including as a result of unexpected factors or events, (4) the failure to obtain the necessary approval by the shareholders of Southwest and/or American, (5) the ability by each of Prosperity, Southwest and/or American to obtain required governmental approvals of the transactions on the timeline expected, or at all, and the risk that such approvals may result in the imposition of conditions that could adversely affect Prosperity after the closing of the transactions or adversely affect the expected benefits of the transactions, (6) reputational risk and the reaction of each company's customers, suppliers, employees or other business partners to the transactions, (7) the failure of the closing conditions in the applicable Merger Agreements to be satisfied, or any unexpected delay in closing the transactions or the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of the applicable Merger Agreements, (8) the dilution caused by the issuances of additional shares of Prosperity's common stock in the transactions, (9) the possibility that the transactions may be more expensive to complete than anticipated, including as a result of unexpected factors or events, (10) the outcome of any legal or regulatory proceedings that may be currently pending or later instituted against Prosperity before or after any of the transactions, or against Southwest or American, (11) diversion of management's attention from ongoing business operations and (12) general competitive, economic, political and market conditions and other factors that may affect future results of Prosperity, Southwest and American. Prosperity disclaims any obligation to update such factors or to publicly announce the results of any revisions to any of the forward-looking statements included herein to reflect future events or developments. These and various other factors are discussed in Prosperity's Annual Report on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, and Current Reports on Form 8-K, in each case filed with the SEC, and other reports and statements Prosperity has filed with the SEC. Copies of the SEC filings for Prosperity may be downloaded from the Internet at no charge from <http://www.prosperitybankusa.com>.
